User		Journey phases	Class is about to begin	Opening the attendance service	Finding the correct course and lesson	Marking student attendance	Confirming and correcting attendance	Reviewing attendance later	Getting help or sharing the experience
Who?	• Teacher/lecturer	User actions	• Prepare to record attendance before the lesson starts • Be ready to track who is present or absent	• Open the app or website • Log in successfully • Reach the attendance view quickly	• Find the right course • Select the correct lesson or session • Make sure the teacher is marking attendance for the right group	• Mark students as present or absent • Possibly use QR as self-marking flow • Complete attendance efficiently during class	• Check that the attendance was saved correctly • Fix wrong entries if needed • Make sure no student is missing from the record	• Review attendance history • Check patterns of absence or attendance • Use records later for follow-up or reporting	• Ask for support if something went wrong • Report a technical issue • Recommend the tool to a colleague if the experience was good
Scenario	• Teacher uses Better Jaksec as attendance marking system for his/her course	Context & Touchpoints	• Classroom or campus • Before the lesson • Teacher's phone or laptop • Browser	• Browser • Login page • School network / internet connection	• Course list • Lesson list • Search, multiple buttons	• Attendance list • Student names • Buttons, QR scanne, list of absent and present students	• Confirmation message • Attendance summary • Edit/update controls	• Attendance history view • Student records • Course/lesson statistics or reporting page	• Support channel • Email or message to admin • Conversation with another teacher
User expectations	• Easy to use • Log in works flawlessly • Students attendace marking works fast • Easy access to help when problem occurs	Gains	• Feels prepared before class • Attendance process can start quickly • Less stress at the beginning of the lesson	• Fast access • Easy login • Clear first view	• Easy to identify the correct course • Clear order of lessons • Reduces mistakes	• Fast marking process • Easy overview of all students • Saves teacher time	• Sense of control • Confidence that records are accurate • Easy correction of mistakes	• Better overview of student attendance • Useful for monitoring and decision-making • Helps follow up repeated absences	• Problems can be resolved • Positive experience can be shared • Builds trust in the system
		Pains	• Busy start of class • Limited time before teaching begins • May forget to prepare attendance in advance	• Login issues • Slow loading • Unclear navigation after login	• Similar course names • Too many steps • Hard to find the correct lesson quickly	• Misclicks • Unclear status icons • Slow updates when many students are involved • Non responsive selfmarking	• No clear confirmation • Hard to know if save succeeded • Editing may be confusing	• Hard-to-read statistics • Missing filters or summaries • Difficult to compare lessons or students	• No clear help channel • Slow response from support • Hard to explain what went wrong
		Thoughs	• Did I already create this lesson in the system • I hope this doesn't take too long during class	• I hope the system loads fast • Where do I find today's class	• Which course is this group again • Is this the correct lesson or date	• Absent or late • Is everyone marked already	• Did I mark everyone correctly • Can I still edit this later if something is wrong	• How has attendance been for this course • Which students are frequently absent	• This actually saves time • Is there a support chat or guide
		Improvements	• Automatic reminders before class starts • Show today's scheduled lessons on dashboard	• Quick access to today's class • Slow loading • Unclear navigation after login	• Favorite or pin frequent courses • Add search and filters	• Improve QR reliability • Faster real-time updates • Clear visual status (present/absent/late)	• Show clear save confirmation • Make editing attendance easier	• Enable filtering by student, course, and date • Present attendance data in a clear visual overview	• Quick help guide inside app • Easy way to share app

Emotion